RALPH PLATT is a Flagstaff, Arizona, businessman and is very active in the city's church and civic affairs. Before moving to Arizona, Mr. Platt was a featured whistler for eight years at Clifcon's famous Cafeteria in Los Angeles. In the past he has appeared on coast-to-coast television and at one time made a personal appearance tour throughout the Mid-West and Southern States with Roy Rogers and Dale Evans. He has been a frequent guest artist at Youth for Christ rallies, campus crusades and city-wide evangelistic crusades, as well as at service clubs, nature clubs and conventions. For more than a decade Mr. Platt whistled the theme song and solos on radio's well-known "Voice of Calvary" program.

LORIN WHITNEY is beyond doubt one of the best known organists in the field of religious music. He first gained national fame as organist with the Haven of Rest Quartet. He has played on numerous broadcasts and telecasts and has made frequent personal appearances throughout the United States. Mr. Whitney has made many recordings and owns a recording studio in California. His great talent, and his close acquaintance with daily Christian living, is always reflected beautifully through his playing.
